

HOW TO USE YOUR LIBRARY

How would you like to be a pathfinder? Not the kind who tracks animals in the woods, but a library pathfinder? The library is a great storehouse of facts and fiction. It can provide information about the world, hobbies, interests, careers, and people. But finding your way through the library takes time and skill. This orientation will help build your skills in the art of finding information. Happy trails!

Key*
 C = Computer
 P# = Printer
 T = Table
 * not quite to scale